RESOLUTION NO. 22-1941

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF EASTPOINTE FOR A CLEAN CITY INITIATIVE

WHEREAS, litter leaves a blighted stain on our quality of life and is destructive to wildlife and the natural environment; and

WHEREAS, littering is a crime and attracts additional criminal behavior; and

WHEREAS, littering influences others to litter; and

WHEREAS, the City of Eastpointe continues to have litter problem and spends tax dollars to pick up litter along our roadsides and in our public spaces; and

WHEREAS, littering creates a negative impression for residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, the City of Eastpointe will increase enforcement of this crime, raise awareness about the act of littering, reduce the overall amount of litter, and will not tolerate this crime through a Clean City Initiative to significantly reduce Litter in the community; and

WHEREAS, special attention will be given to vehicles hauling unsecured loads, acts of illegal dumping and motorists or pedestrians improperly tossing away items. Other items of focus will be improperly containerized garbage in residential areas, commercial dumpsters and construction debris; and

WHEREAS, the City of Eastpointe is being proactive in litter prevention by working with residents, commercial businesses and civic organizations to educate and assist in creating a cleaner community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Eastpointe, does hereby proclaim a Clean City Initiative for Litter and encourages all citizens to work together, stand firm against the act of littering, and to act responsibly throughout the year for a cleaner community to preserve the natural beauty, quality of life, and health of our community.
